Hello 2023!

The following information has been put together for Exhibitors/Trainers/Owners, to help them understand what memberships, and or horse nominations, may be required. And, what the basic fees are for the association approvals of the Let's Show and Brookside Hunter Jumper shows for 2023.

The approving Associations this year are: USHJA Outreach, PCHA, CPHA (Medals only), Sierra Nevada Horse Show Association (SNHSA), National Snaffle Bit Association (NSBA), and Sacramento Area Hunter Jumper Association (SAHJA).

Each approving association has show requirements that shows and show managers must meet to qualify for their approval. Items such as per horse fees, Licensed Judges, Licensed Course Designers, Medical Staff, Stewards, Safety protocols, Veterinarian, Farrier, as well as facility insurance. In addition, the California Equine Medicine Monitoring Program (CDFA Drug), requires a fee of $14.00 per horse at every show, whether they are showing or not.

If you are riding for Year End Awards or Medal qualifying, or other association offerings, memberships MUST be current prior to the show! Memberships ARE NOT required to "show", but per horse fees do apply for some organizations.

Now Read On...

USHJA Outreach Competitions

The shows hosted by Brookside or Let's Show do NOT require USHJA Outreach membership for exhibitor, horse, trainer or owner to SHOW. It is encouraged but NOT required. And membership is FREE.

Membership at the USHJA Outreach level or higher, such as a USHJA active/competing membership, is required to earn points and awards for Year End prizes and to participate at the Halloween Show, which will host the USHJA Outreach Festival this year. USHJA Outreach membership is FREE. Free to Exhibitor, Free to Exhibitor/Owner, Free to Trainer ... so why NOT become a USHJA Outreach member?

Trainers do NOT have to be USHJA or USHJA Outreach members to participate at a Brookside or Let's Show event. Horses are NOT required to be USHJA recorded and there is no microchip requirement to show at a Brookside or Let's Show horse show, but if already done - great!
